Intergaelic: Manx language resources for Irish speakers

Kevin Scannell Saint Louis University 1 April 2017

Gaelg/Manx Gaelic

- Part of the Gaelic dialect continuum
- Orthography very different from Irish/Scottish
- Declared "extinct" by UNESCO
- Being revived now, including immersion school
- Probably less than 500 fluent speakers

Three-Way Comparison

- ga: "Níl leigheas agat air sin, arú," a dúirt an Cat. "Táimid go léir as ár meabhair anseo."
- gd: "O, chan eil atharrach ann," ars an Cat. "Tha sinn uile às ar ciall an seo."
- gv: "Ogh, cha nel niart ayd er shen," dooyrt y Kayt. "Ta shin ooilley keoi ayns shoh."

Goals

- Resources to help Irish speakers learn Manx
- Manx to Irish dictionary
- Machine translation engine
- Translations of social media posts
- Manx texts annotated with Irish "hints"
- Similar stuff for Gàidhlig in earlier work

Why Machine Translation?

- One big community from three small ones
- Break down communication barriers
- Open new markets for Manx writers
- Tools for learners, w/o going via English
- "Transfer" Irish language tech to Manx
- Enables comparative linguistic study
- Deliver MT results in creative, tailored ways
- Rehabilitate a much-maligned technology!

Parallel corpus

- Aligned Irish-Manx Gaelic texts
- A little bit of everything!
- The full Bible, old and new testaments
- Six novels translated from Irish (!), Buntús Cainte
- Software translations (Minecraft, e.g.)
- 78k segments, about 1.1M words on each side
- Unusual in that very little is direct translation

Disambiguation, I: orthography

- Challenging b/c of reduced spelling
- "Diu y kayt ooilley'n bainney oor"
- Manx "diu" is either Ir. "d'ól (d'ibh)" or "daoibh"
- Manx "oor" is either Ir. "úr" or "uair"
- "D'ól an cat an bainne úr go léir"
- "Beeym ersooyl tree kerroo oor"
- "Beidh mé ar siúl trí cheathrú uair (an chloig)"

Disambiguation II: grammar

- Irish dependent verbs don't survive in Manx
- Manx "Ass ferg ren eh eh"
- Ir. "As fearg a rinne sé é"
- "...boayl raad ren y Çhiarn conaant rish cloan Israel, tra haink ad magh ass Egypt"
- "…áit a ndearna an Tiarna conradh le clann Iosrael, nuair a tháinig siad amach as an Éigipt"

Disambiguation III: hyperambiguity

- Manx "ny" = Ir. na, ina, ná, nó, níos
- Manx "ta fer ny croshey ny lhie ny ta eh ny s'aa na mish; ny bee aggle ort roish"
- Ir. "tá fear na croise ina luí nó tá sé níos óige ná mise; ná bíodh eagla ort roimhe"

Disambiguation IV: cur

- Cur, m. act of putting, sending, sowing, raining, discussing, burying, vomiting, hammering into the ground, throwing through the air, rejecting, shooting, the setting or clamp in a rick of turf, selling, addressing, the crown of cast-iron buttons which have been made bright by contact with cliff-faces, the stench of congealing badger's suet, the luminance of glue-lice, a noise made in an empty house by an unauthorised person, a heron's boil, a leprachaun's denture, a sheep-biscuit, the act of inflating hare's offal with a bicycle pump, a leak in a spirit level, the whinge of a sewage farm windmill, a corncrake's clapper, the scum on the eye of a senile ram...
- Worse in Manx: "cur" can mean Ir. "cur" or "tabhairt"
- Mx. "Cur er y choontey eh" = Ir. "Cuir ar an chuntas é"
- Mx. "Cur dou dty laue" = Ir. "Tabhair dom do lámh"

An Aside: Lexical Innovation

- Fargher's 1979 English-Manx dictionary based on de Bhaldraithe's 1959 English-Irish dictionary
- Survey of 500 random headwords from de Bhaldraithe
- 207 (41.4%) appear in no earlier Eng.-Ir. dictionary
- 457 carried over to Fargher's Manx dictionary
- Of these, 253 (55.7%) appear in no earlier English-Manx dictionary
- Some Irish terms have evolved since, but remain "frozen" in Manx (feeree/fíoraí for "template")

GEOFF

Bhí scáth taithí ionaid timpeall Delbee a lán blianta ó shin agus ar leith an áit atá ainmnithe Bearna Cashen. Tá tar éis a bheith neart rudaí aisteacha le cloisteáil agus le feiceáil leis na céadta bliain timpeall an ionaid sin agus tá cuimhne fós ag roinnt mhaith atá beo an lá atá ann inniu ar an ainmhí beag ainmnithe Geoff. D'fhéad Geoff labhairt le daoine ina dteanga féin agus tá mórán scéalta iontacha agus faoi rún faoi. Má tá tusa tar éis cloisteáil an ceann seo roimhe seo, gabh mo leithscéal.

Bhí feirmeoir ann ag treabhadh le céachta agus bhí capall ag tarraingt an chéachta ar aghaidh agus bhí madra ina gcúl ag leanúint orthu. Bhí an lá fíorthe agus grianmhar agus bhí an capall agus an duine clúdaithe le hallas mar gheall ar an saothar deacair a bhí siad ag déanamh. Bhí siad ag obair i ngar do Bhearna Cashen ag treabhadh machaire crochta. Ag an am ceart tháinig ceann Geoff amach as bearna sa chlaí agus dúirt sé leis an duine.

"Is dóigh liomsa go bhfuil an aimsir beagnach róthe d'obair dá leithéid sin, a dhuine; tá tú ag féachaint le bheith beagnach traochta."

"Is é, go deimhin," d'fhreagair an duine.

Agus air sin dúirt an capall, "Beidh a fhios níos fearr agat go bhfuil sé róthe duit dá mbeadh tusa ag tarraingt an chéachta throm seo."

"Ar m'anam," dúirt Geoff, "ní raibh a fhios agam gur fhéad an capall sin labhairt."

"Ní raibh a fhios agam féin," dúirt an duine, ag gabháil iontais air.

"Ná agamsa ach an oiread," dúirt an madra.

Manx Phrases/Idioms

- Bilingual Manx-Eng "phrasebook" extracted from Fargher's dictionary by Phil Kelly
- Basically, all of the usage examples
- But recall Fargher is based almost exactly on de Bhaldraithe's dictionary!
- "As a result of the committal of that task to him" →
  "De bharr an obair sin a chur de chúram air" (de Bh.) →
  "Mar eiyrtys jeh cur yn obbyr shen fo'n churrym echey" (F.) →
  "Mar thoradh ar chur na hoibre sin faoina chúram" (Intergaelic)
